Kok Tobe park

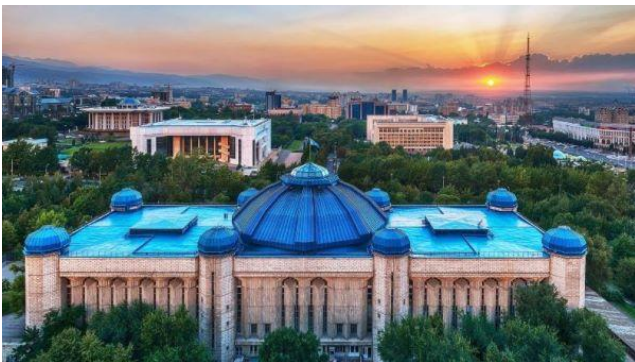

The park on the Kok Tobe mountain in Almaty is located on a peak dominating the city, 1130 meters above sea level. The mountain is crowned with the tallest building in the city and one of its symbols is the television tower. The territory of the park is qualitatively landscaped and has a modern infrastructure. Here you can walk along the picturesque terraces and alleys, comfortably relax in a cafe or restaurant, and visit an amusement park with a Ferris wheel. Tourists go to the park by the cable car to lookout platforms that offer a panoramic view of Almaty and the Zailiysky Alatau ridge. Special binoculars installed on the sites will help to examine the surroundings in all details. On the territory there are also a small zoo, attractions, many souvenir shops, walking routes are equipped. For connoisseurs of contemporary art, there is an Art Gallery in the park, with the works of artists, sculptors, and photographers.

The Shymbulak mountain resort is in the picturesque gorge of the Zailiysky Alatau at an altitude of 2260 meters above sea level, a 15-minute drive from the centre of Almaty. The resort operates all year round, offering visitors, in addition to the ski slopes, other entertainment: cycling down the slope, paragliding, excursions in the mountains (travellers will be accompanied by an experienced guide), a rope park. A variety of outdoor activities will surely appeal to visitors to the resort: everyone will be able to choose the most suitable entertainment for themselves.

Central State Museum of Kazakhstan

This museum is one of the largest and most significant in Central Asia. The area of the museum exceeds 17 thousand square meters, the expositions are located on three floors. The number of exhibits collected in the museum exceeds 200 thousand. The exposition of the State Museum demonstrates to visitors the history of the region, as well as the stages of development of the peoples inhabiting Kazakhstan.

Big Almaty Lake, or BAO for short, is a picturesque lake 20 kilometres from Almaty. Big Almaty Lake was formed after an earthquake, into a natural pit, which was filled with water. Its depth is up to 40 m, the maximum length and width are 1.6 per 1 km. Height above sea level 2511m. BAO is one of the main sources of drinking water in Almaty (it is she who flows through the pipe), so you can't swim or fish there. The lake can be admired all year round. Best time to visit Summer, Spring, Autumn. Even in cloudy weather, the Lake looks spectacular.

By PLANE

Almaty International Airport is in the northern part of the Almaty city in about 15 km from the city centre, and about 20 km from Main Hotel and Venue. Almaty International Airport is the first in terms of passenger traffic in the country, has international status and serves more than 4 million travellers annually. Almaty International Airport serves both all Kazakhstan Airlines so many Major International Airlines.

By CAR

Driving by your own car is one of the best ways to experience Kazakhstan in your own pace. In the northwest, north and northeast, Kazakhstan borders on Russia, in the southeast - on China, in the south - on Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan and Turkmenistan. If you are planning to come to Kazakhstan on your own car, you need to clarify the information on the possibility and timing of travel for citizens of your country by car, since in Kazakhstan there are different rules for citizens of different countries.

At the border you will need to provide a valid passport, international driving license, vehicle license and vehicle registration details. Do check if your insurance is valid for Kazakhstan. If the vehicle belongs to someone else, a power of attorney will be required. You need to have with you local money (Kazakhstan tenge KZT) or international bank card.

Fuel prices are around 0,50 € / litre (petrol) and 0,60 € / litre (diesel). You can pay cash or with international credit or debit cards. Electric charging networks is available in Kazakhstan only within the big cities.

All visa application should be sent to v.batueva@mail.ru

The Kazakhstan consulates can be found here.

<https://www.gov.kz>

You can find visa information for Kazakhstan at this link.

https://egov.kz/cms/ru/articles/exit-entry_of_foreign_nationals

In order to enter Kazakhstan, the citizens of the countries for which a visa is requested, determined by the official authorities, must apply in person from our foreign representative offices. Foreigners coming from countries where we do not have a foreign representative office must apply for a Kazakhstan visa in person to our representative office, which is accredited to the country of their nationality. Below is the list of documents that you need to bring with you and submit to the official authorities after making an appointment.

Required documents...

- Passport
- Biometric photo,
- Document showing your income status or the income status of the inviting person,
- Flight and hotel reservation or invitation (from the host)
- Document proving that you will return (Salary slip, bank account, workplace permit etc.),
- Travel insurance.

The required documents mentioned above vary depending on the type of visa you will apply to the representatives. Representative offices have the authority to request documents depending on your situation.

According to each foreign country, different lengths of stay, entry options and fees are applied by Kazakhstan.

All participants who need an entry visa, are kindly asked to send request, delegation list, and copy of their passport/s before 15th of July 2023. After this date the host cannot be made responsible for visa formalities, extra processing fees may apply.

Invitations will be issued within 3 working days after receiving the documents.

All visa applications should be sent to v.batueva@mail.ru
